128 200 job vacancies on average in Austria in 2019, 6.6% more than in the previous year

Vienna, 2020-02-06 – In 2019, Austrian enterprises reported an annual average of 128 200 job vacancies (2018: 120 300). Compared to the previous year, job vacancies rose by 6.6%, as Statistics Austria reports. In relation to people in employment the vacancy rate was at 3.0% in 2019, after a rate of 2.9% in 2018. 62.5% of vacancies have also been reported to the Public Employment Service Austria (AMS).

For more detailed information please refer to the German version.