Statistical Register as a basis of statistical production in the Republic of Belarus

Svetlana Nichiporuk Head of Statistical Register Department
The main functions and uses of the Statistical Register

- ensuring complete recording and identification of respondents and statistical units
- organizing and conducting statistical surveys
- ensuring compilation of official statistical information
- allowing for statistical analysis for comparable range of units
- ensuring interaction with administrative data sources and others
Statistical Register

Administrative part

legal units

Statistical part

statistical units
Objects of the administrative part

- officially registered legal entities of Belarus
- separate subdivisions of legal entities of Belarus
- representative offices of foreign organisations located in the territory of Belarus
- simple partnerships
Types of statistical units (SU types)

Enterprise

Asset holder

Local unit
Simple hierarchy of SUs

Legal entity from the administrative part which does not have any separate subdivisions

E 1
A 1
L 1

E – enterprise, A – asset holder, L – local unit
Ramified hierarchy of SUs

E – enterprise, A – asset holder, L – local unit
Correspondence between the objects of the administrative part and SU types

Object of the administrative part

- Legal entities
  - Representative offices of foreign organisations
  - Simple partnerships
- Separate subdivisions having separate balance
- Separate subdivisions which do not have separate balance

Upper level of the SU type

- Enterprise
- Asset holder
- Local unit
Statistical surveys and SU types

Statistical survey

- foreign investment
  - SU type: enterprise

- finance statistics
  - SU type: asset holder

- labour statistics
  - SU type: local unit
Units for the survey on foreign investment

Units for finance statistics

Units for labour statistics

National Statistical Committee of the Republic of Belarus Establishment of business process for conducting statistical surveys taking into account:

centralized model of metadata management interrelations of microdata with information of the Statistical Register Thank you for your attention!