Number of deaths in Austria in early February below the level of previous years

Vienna, 2022-02-17 – According to preliminary results by Statistics Austria, a total of 1 772 persons died in the fifth calendar week of 2022 (31 January to 6 February 2022), which is similar to the number of the previous week (1 753 deaths in calendar week 4).

"At the beginning of February 2022, around 5% fewer people died in Austria than in the fifth calendar week of 2021. The number of deaths was thus 4% below the five-year average for the fifth calendar week of the years before the start of the Corona pandemic," said Statistics Austria Director General Tobias Thomas.
