

Data Protection Information

This data protection information informs you about the processing of personal data when using the website www.statistik.at.

Logging of IP addresses

While accessing this website (this is also valid for any other website), you transmit data to a web server via your IT device (computer, tablet or smartphone).

The following data are recorded during an ongoing connection for communication between your IT device and the web server of Statistics Austria: Date and time of the request, name of the requested file, website from which the file was requested, access status, web browser and operating system used, requesting IP address, amount of data transmitted. This information is required to maintain the operation and IT security of our website and will be evaluated for error analysis in the event of an incident.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your IT device and saved by your web browser. Our website uses the following cookies:

"Session Cookies": They are automatically deleted at the end of the Internet session or when the web browser is closed.

"Persistent cookies": They have a maximum expiry period of 2 years and are automatically deleted after expiry of their validity period.

You can set your web browser so that you are informed about the setting of cookies, only allow cookies in individual cases, exclude the acceptance of cookies for certain cases or in general and activate the automatic deletion of cookies when closing the web browser. When cookies are deactivated, the functionality of our website may be limited.

Web application by Matomo (formerly: PIWIK)

Our website uses Matomo. This is an open source application for statistical analysis of user access. The information generated by the use of this website (cookies) is transferred to the web server and stored for usage analysis purposes. This serves to optimize our website. The IP address is anonymized before processing and storage. You can prevent the installation of cookies at any time by setting your web browser software accordingly.

Newsletter

If you are interested in receiving newsletters, press releases, quick reports, Statistics Brief, Zahlenspiegel and/or other mail subscriptions on topics of your choice via our newsletter-system, we need your e-mail address and your declaration of consent. Of course you can revoke this consent at any time. Please do not hesitate to contact us at publikationen@statistik.gv.at if you have any questions.
